

Bara, Berry plan December wedding

Barry and Joan Bara of Dickinson have announced the engagement and upcoming marriage of their daughter, Brandi D'Lyn, to James Douglas Berry, son of Bill and Melissa Berry of League City.

A 1992 graduate of Clear Brook High School, the bride-to-be is a 1996 cum laude graduate of Texas Tech University where she received both a bachelor's and a master's degree in accounting. She served as pledge trainer of High Riders service sorority while at Tech and served as a B.A. Ambassador.

She is employed by K. Hovnanian Homes as an accounting manager.

The prospective groom is a 1991 graduate of Texas City High School and attended Stephen F. Austin University where he received a bachelor's degree in art with a minor in biology.

He recently retired from competitive cycling after 16 seasons during which he raced extensively throughout the U.S. and Europe.

His cycling career highlights include four Collegiate Conference Championship medals, the 1996 Alkek Velodrome Rider of the Year and 1999 State Championship gold medalist in the Team Pursuit.

Additionally, he was a 2000 Olympic Team Trials competitor.

Doug is employed at Grubb & Ellis as a graphic designer.

A December wedding is planned in Spring, Texas.

James Douglas Berry and Brandi D'Lyn Bara